

Shipping between North Europe and the East Coast of South America? We have an update for our BPX service

Dear Customer,

In addition to our previous communication dated August 11, 2021, we have an additional update that we would like to share with you. Our service linking the East Coast of South America and the North of Europe, Brazil River Plate Express Service (BPX) will continue to suspend the call at Le Havre, France until the end of 2021, with MV CAP SAN AUGUSTIN V150S (planned departure December 26, 2021).

For your reference, please find below the map for our Brazil River Plate Express Service (BPX) service:

We know that the suspension of the port call at Le Havre by our BPX service might impact your cargo planning to and from Le Havre. Therefore, we will offer you weekly departures and arrivals on our South America East Coast – North Europe Express Service (ECX).
